I never failed once...

It just happened to be a 2000-step process.

Thomas Edison

(when asked how it felt to fail 2000 times trying to invent the light bulb)

Man's mind stretched to a new idea never goes back to its original dimensions.

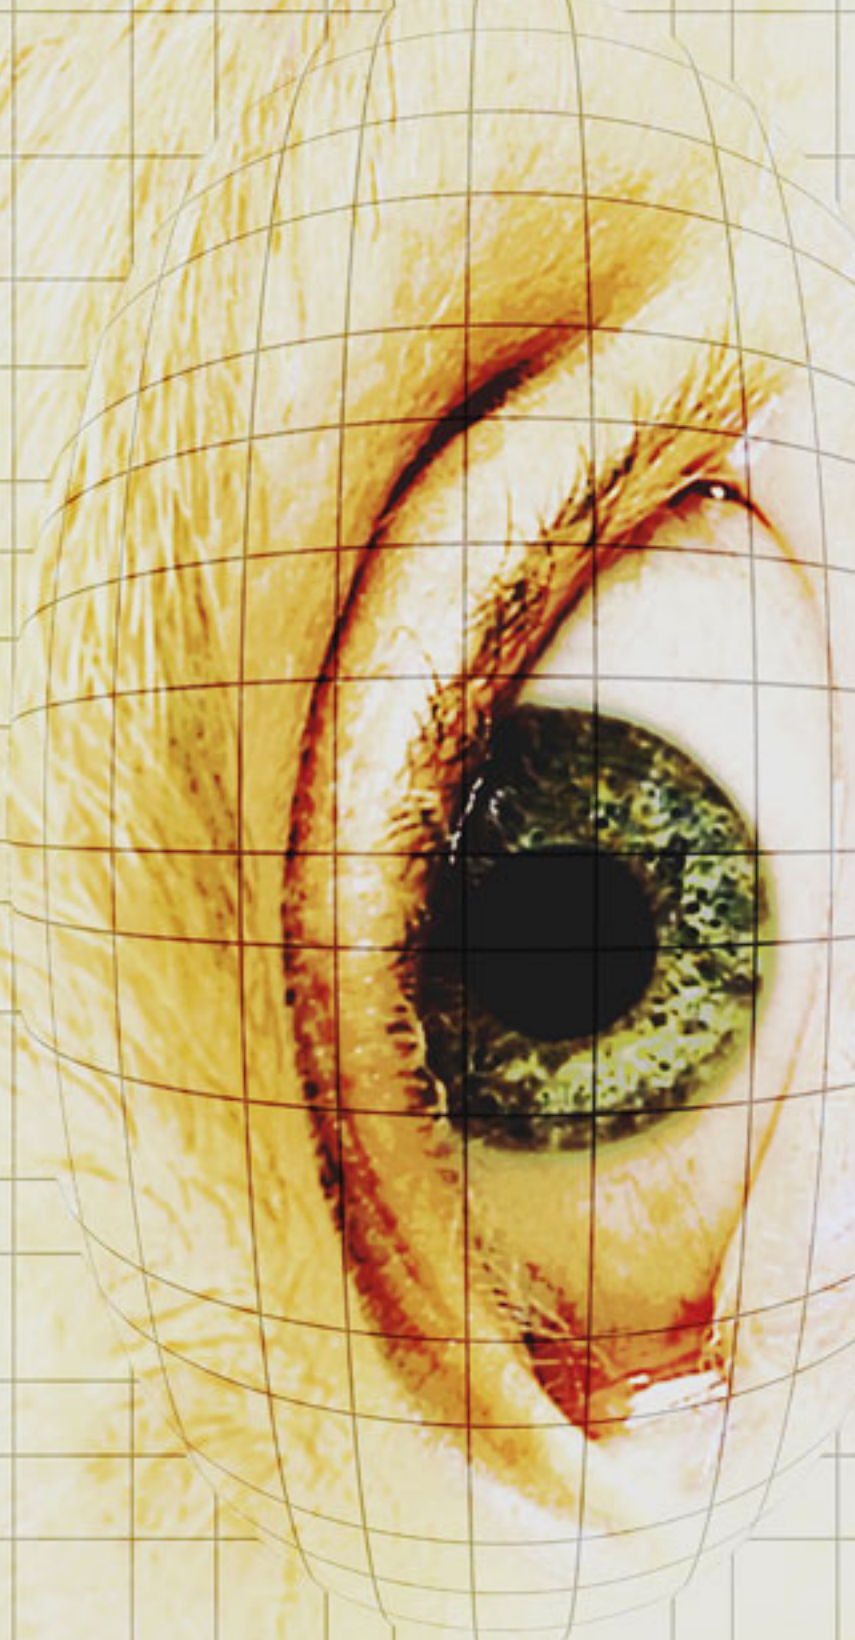

Oliver Wendell Holmes

A vertical photograph of a sunset over a body of water. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the left side, partially obscured by a layer of white, textured foam or surf that runs horizontally across the middle of the frame. The sky is filled with soft, orange and yellow clouds. The water in the foreground is a calm, golden-brown color.

YOU CAN DO IT!!!

When they say
the odds are against you...
bet on your heart
and prove them wrong.

When they say
you don't have a chance...

When they say
it's a lost cause...
go for it --
it's still YOUR cause.

When they say
to quit while you're ahead...
